

Technolang STUDENT SURVEY EVALUATION

When we compare the last survey with the previous ones: The proportion of those who think our project raises awareness of Technolang is 100%.

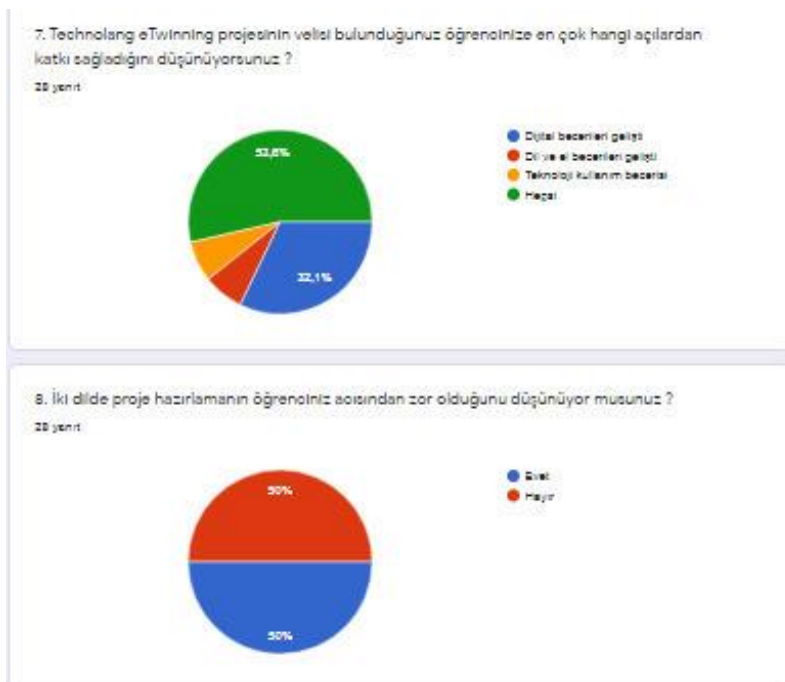

Do you pay attention to your Technolang in everyday life?

The proportion of those who answered this question "always" rose from 20% to 82%. A parent survey found that this figure was above 50%. 91% agreed that our project raised awareness of internet safety and copyright of materials What did you like most about our project? Here's the ratio of answers: *

Activities were useful for students: 87% * Learned new web 2 tools: 93% Therefore, we understand that the activities of the project have a positive impact on the project partners, and they also learn new web 2.0 tools What activities did you enjoy the most?

87% of students chose the quizz event as their favorite. This result also showed that fun and tutorial games have a positive effect on the learning process

What skills have you developed through project activities? Our project, in particular*, has positive effects on all skills, we have learned that we need to be more careful when using the internet. * digital competence; * planning; * foreign language skills; * critical thinking; * collaboration; * research and research. communication skills * intercultural interaction Among these skills, foreign language skills rank first at 78%.

In other words, our project is not only concerned with digital literacy, it has raised awareness of harmony habits, but also improved foreign language skills with those mentioned above In the parent survey, she said: "I'm glad my son / daughter joined the project.

"Due to the 100% yes answer given in the question, parents were satisfied with the participation of students in eTwinning projects.